

THIS MAP IS NOT TO SCALE

Charleston View

1 St. Thérèse Mission
 Located along the Old Spanish Trail and surrounded by the beauty of the Mojave, the Mission's simple yet modern architecture is built to inspire prayer and reflection. The 17.5-acre property serves the community as a venue for religious and cultural events, a pilgrimage site for devotees of St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus, and a home to celebrate the life of both the living and the departed. Open Wed – Sun, 9am – 4pm • 881 E. Old Spanish Trail • www.sttheresemission.com

China Ranch + Tecopa Mines

2 Tecopa Mines
 From 1875 through 1957, miners struggled and sometimes died beneath the earth just east of Tecopa as they carved silver, lead, and other minerals out of the mountains. They left behind over twenty miles of tunnels filled with impressive timbers, ancient graffiti, and lots of period equipment and other artifacts. Come experience the Noonday, War Eagle, Grant, and Columbia mines via guided underground tours and see the remains of the company towns and a small but growing surface museum. As seen on Facebook, Instagram and YouTube! (703) 919-5077 • tecopamines@gmail.com

3 China Ranch Date Farm, Gift Shop & Bakery TRAILHEAD
 China Ranch is a small family-owned and operated farm located in a desert oasis. Towering cottonwoods and willows, a wandering stream, date palms, and abundant wildlife are hidden away in some of the most spectacular scenery the desert has to offer. The Ranch is a popular stop for birdwatchers, geologists, hikers, snowbirds, and families. Enjoy a superb hike, take a stroll through the date groves, or browse our store while enjoying a date shake. We grow many traditional varieties of dates, as well as our own heirlooms, all available for purchase in the gift shop. Try some of our fresh-baked goodies, or grab some knickknacks or unique hand-crafted souvenirs on your way out. Open daily, 9am – 5pm (Jun 1 – Sep 1: 9am – 3pm) • (760) 852-4415 • China Ranch Rd • www.chinaranch.com

4 Amargosa River Trail TRAILHEAD
 China Ranch is the trail head for the Amargosa River Trail, some of the best hiking the area has to offer. The Old Spanish Trail, the historic Tonopah & Tidewater railroad bed, waterfalls, a slot canyon, and beautiful Rainbow Mountain are all within walking distance of China Ranch. If you're feeling adventurous, hike the full 7-mile River Trail (one-way) to downtown Tecopa!

Tecopa Heights

5 Drinking Water Kiosk
 In the desert, water truly is life. The Tecopa hydration station provides purified drinking water to residents and travelers alike. Our kiosk can fill 1-gallon, 3-gallon or 5-gallon jugs, at just 25 cents per gallon. Stay hydrated while supporting our community-run clean water system! At the corner of Bob White Way & Furnace Creek Rd • 24 hours • Cash only • (760) 852-4130

6 Villa Anita Death Valley
 Experience the adventure of life! This property will take you on a journey of discovery. A place for recharging and refreshing the spirit, Villa Anita is a one-of-a-kind estate of indoor and outdoor spaces with art, gardens, and fantasy around every corner. Take a tour at $55/person or opt for an overnight stay to peruse a curated collection of artwork and furniture including a centuries old Chinese wedding bed, art made by artists in residence, collectibles, and more! 10 Sunset Rd • Call or text (914) 434-1553 • villaanitadv@gmail.com • www.villaanitadv.com

Tecopa

7 Spa Boutik
 Spa Boutik offers a wide range of treatments, from relaxation to therapeutic massage, reflexology, and ear candling. With more than 3,000 hours of Canadian and American training and 18+ years in holistic health, Isabelle Nuckle specializes in deep tissue and trigger point therapy. Enjoy a soak in our restorative mineral hot spring or a detoxifying session in the infra-red sauna, or just come shop at our curated thrift store "La Boutik"! Massage By Appointment Only • (805) 540-0697 • Tecopaspaboutik@gmail.com • www.spaboutik.com

8 Kit Fox Cafe
 Located in "downtown" Tecopa, the Kit Fox Cafe is your go-to spot for espresso, fresh baked goods, sandwiches, soups, salads, and more. We also have a wood-fired pizza oven that makes pizza for the cafe and for Death Valley Brewing next door. There is something for everyone here, including a corner nook of essential sundries for your camping needs. Our focus is on fresh, scratch-made organic food, with plant-based vegan options as well! Open Wed – Sun, 8am – 7pm • 59 Tecopa Hot Springs Rd • (970) 388-4805

9 Death Valley Brewing TRAILHEAD
 DVB is the best craft brewer in the desert, and your last chance for a locally-made cold one before you enter the park! Since 2014, brewer extraordinaire Dan has been reimagining what beer can and should be, using local ingredients when possible and local artisanal water. Join us for a beer – or take some of our small batch brews home with you. Stop by for a game of pool and take in the magical living history of our tiny community. We'll keep a pint glass chilled for you! Thu – Sun, 1pm – 8pm • 59 Old Spanish Trail • www.deathvalleybrewing.com • @deathvalleybrewing

10 Faith Community Church
 "A Lighthouse on the Backside of the Desert." Built in 1957 by a group of local Christians for ministry to our local community and those who visit our area and desire to hear God's word and fellowship with His children. "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink." (John 7:37) Come and be refreshed! Service times 10am - noonish, every Lord's day from mid-Sep through the last Lord's day in May • 1 Old Spanish Trail Hwy • (760) 852-4239

Tecopa Hot Springs

11 Tecopa Hot Springs Resort TRAILHEAD
 Are you ready for wide open space, a spectacular view of the night sky, a soak in natural, silky hot spring waters at the edge of the wilderness of Death Valley National Park? Do you yearn for time away from incessant technology, quiet with cozy comforts? Then you're ready for Tecopa Hot Springs Resort. We're just east of the southern end of Death Valley National Park at an elevation of 1,325 feet, approximately 80 miles west of Las Vegas, NV & 50 miles north of Baker, CA. 860 Tecopa Hot Springs Rd • (760) 852-4420 • www.amystecopahotspingsresort.com

12 Tecopa Artist Group Gallery at Tecopa Hot Springs Resort
 Tecopa Artists Group (TAG) is an eclectic collective of working artists in and around the southern and eastern borders of Death Valley. We have solo and group exhibits at Tecopa Hot Springs Resort, as well as out-of-town artists whose work focuses on the region. TAG actively seeks to provide opportunities for artistic growth to all its members (near and far). 860 Tecopa Hot Springs Rd • (760) 852-4420 • www.amystecopahotspingsresort.com

13 Steaks & Beer
 The name says it all! At this farm-to-table restaurant, gourmet chef Eric Scott serves the finest local and organic ingredients, including grass-fed beef and locally-sourced veggies, jellies and beer. Homemade desserts too! Located at Tecopa Hot Springs Resort, next to the Station Stage. Reservations recommended. Open Fri – Tue • Seatings at 6pm & 8pm (Winter 5pm & 7pm) • 860 Tecopa Hot Springs Rd • (702) 334-3431

14 Station Stage
 Come experience live music under the wide-open desert night sky! Usually weekend nights, October to April, weather and talent permitting. At the Tecopa Hot Springs Resort, next to Steaks & Beer.

15 Tecopa Community Center TRAILHEAD
 Open to residents and visitors, we provide senior lunch (donation suggested, reservations required), education, and physical fitness classes. Check out the community bulletin board for local events. For transportation needs contact us directly for information. Open Mon - Fri, 8am - 12pm, 12:30pm - 4pm • 405 Tecopa Hot Springs Rd • (760) 852-4264

16 Tecopa Public Library
 The Tecopa Library is affiliated with the Inyo County Free Library system. We offer a great variety of books, CDs, and DVDs for local residents. For visitors, we provide a limited rotation of books. Stop by and say hello! Open Tue 9am - 4pm, Wed 9am - 12pm, Thu 10am - 4pm • 408 Tecopa Hot Springs Rd • (760) 852-4171

17 Tecopa Hot Springs & Campground TRAILHEAD
 The park features a campground with restroom facilities, showers, two bathhouses with separate enclosed men's and women's hot mineral pools, a small private mineral pool, and a playground. There are more than 200 RV spaces and plenty of tent camping, with electrical hookups available throughout the campground. Baths Open 7am - 8pm (7am - 10pm Fri & Sat), $15 All Day • 400 Tecopa Hot Springs Rd • (760) 852-4377 • www.tecopahotspingsandcampground.com

18 Tecopa Cabanas
 Book direct and save 25% on your next Tecopa getaway. Our cabanas are newly designed and painted, with new beds, appliances, and smart TVs. Cabana #1 is perfect for couples traveling to Death Valley, featuring one bedroom, half bath, and full kitchen. Cabana #2 sleeps six comfortably, with three bedrooms, two full bathrooms, full kitchen, laundry, dining room, and living room. Free coffee. Free Wi-Fi. Ask about our Stay 'n' Soak specials! Call/text/email for information. 100 Tecopa Hot Springs Rd • (702) 308-2209 • TecopaCabanas@gmail.com

19 Death Valley Hot Springs Resort
 Unwind in the heart of the Mojave Desert at Death Valley Hot Springs, just minutes from Death Valley National Park. Soak in our mineral-rich, geothermal pools (102–104°F) in private bathhouses or our tranquil outdoor pool, perfect for stargazing. Nestled in the serene desert landscape, our peaceful resort offers cozy bungalows, vacation homes, and RV campsites. Leave the hustle behind and rejuvenate with nature's finest hot springs. Book your desert escape today! 368 Tecopa Hot Springs Rd • (844) 728-5550 • www.DeathValleyHotSprings.com

Tecopa Hot Springs - continued

20 Tecopa Palms Therapeutic Hot Springs

We offer a "Christian" culture. We are "your place" if looking for peace and calm, not being bothered by noise, or ill-behaved people. Pools are chlorine free because water drains into an EPA protected habitat. We Give God the Glory for HIS Therapeutic "Replenishing" hot "sparkling" mineral water from the great deep. Beautiful 30 & 50-amp park, 3 private soaking pools. "... and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened." (Matt 7:8) "... in all things Give God the Glory" (1 Cor 10:31)

Shoshone Village

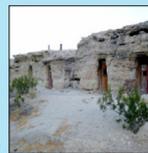

21 St. John The Baptist Mission

This striking building is perched on a lonely desert knoll just south of Shoshone. Opened in 1967, it was built largely by local miners. St. John's is a Mission of Santa Rosa Catholic Parish of Lone Pine, CA – a parish that encompasses 8,000 square miles and covers both the highest and lowest points of elevation in the continental US! While the local population is too small to support a full-time priest, Sunday Liturgy is still celebrated here! Mass held 1st and 3rd Sundays at 4pm • Hwy 127, ½ mile south of Shoshone • (760) 876-4350 • santarosalonepine@gmail.com

22 Dublin Gulch Caves

These fascinating caves were dug out of a layer of volcanic ash formed by the Lava Creek eruption in Yellowstone, over 600,000 years ago. It is unknown exactly when the caves were first dug out and inhabited, but it was likely in the late 1920s during the silver boom at the Noonday Mines. The caves were home to many over the years, most of them local miners. They remained occupied to some extent well into the 1970s! Located behind the Shoshone historical cemetery.

23 Crowbar Café & Saloon

The Crowbar Café & Saloon is located in the heart of Shoshone Village. Built in the 1930s, the restaurant still serves handcrafted cuisine. The adjoining saloon has long been famous as a meeting place for locals and visitors alike. A patio and stage were added in the 1990s, and it serves as a venue for events such as weddings, community celebrations and music festivals. Behind the Crowbar are nature trails which meander through the Shoshone wetlands. (760) 237-4134, for reservations call (760)-852-4224 • www.shoshonevillage.com

24 Shoshone Museum & Visitor Center

The Little Museum with the Big Mammoth! Featuring an eclectic collection in a historic building, we are dedicated to preserving the history of the Southern Amargosa Valley. Exhibits include a mammoth skeleton excavated from the bed of ancient Lake Tecopa, mining history, the T&T Railroad, local pioneers, Death Valley women, baskets woven by local Paiute artisans, and local geology. Our friendly docents provide park information, directions and unsurpassed local knowledge. The gift shop offers a large selection of maps, books, souvenirs and much more! Free admission/donations appreciated • Open daily 9am - 3pm • (760) 852-4524 • www.shoshonemuseum.org

25 Friends of the Amargosa Basin

We are a 501c3 non-profit organization with a mission of "supporting the diversity of life in the Amargosa Basin by protecting its land, water, and beauty". We do this work collaboratively with tribes, local communities, government agencies, and other diverse stakeholders in the pursuit of holistic public land management and long-lasting protections for the Amargosa Basin and its vital resources. Our hope is that this unique area and its environment is sustained for future generations to enjoy. Mon – Fri, 9am - 3pm (hours may vary) • Eco Center, next to the Shoshone Museum • (775) 513-5065 • www.friendsoftheamargosabasin.org

26 Charles Brown General Store, Gift Shop & Gas Station

The Charles Brown General Store, Gift Shop & Gas Station is the perfect supply stop for those exploring the Amargosa and Death Valley areas, and for local residents alike. The store offers provisions, specialty foods, groceries, supplies, exquisite Native American jewelry, gifts, gasoline, diesel, propane, lotto tickets, and much more! Open daily, 7am - 8:30pm • (760) 852-4224 • www.shoshonevillage.com

27 Shoshone Inn

Since the early 1900s, Shoshone Village has been a base camp for visitors exploring Death Valley National Park. The Shoshone Inn offers old west hospitality in a contemporary setting. Some rooms have kitchenettes for extended stays. The "Whiffletree" bungalow, named by famed Death Valley geologist Levi Noble, has a full kitchen, living room, and an inviting outdoor area. In the heart of Shoshone Village, we are a short walk from the Crowbar Café and Saloon, the Charles Brown General Store, the Shoshone Museum, and the pool. (760) 852-4335 • www.shoshonevillage.com

28 Shoshone Education and Research (SHEAR) Center

We are a non-profit organization dedicated to facilitating field trips and research visits to the Death Valley region. We offer inexpensive lodging for students and faculty in Shoshone Village, between Death Valley National Park and Las Vegas. SHEAR is primarily used by geology groups, but it is open to all. Our facilities include meeting space, kitchen and dining hall, two bunkhouses, and one permanent trailer. We can comfortably accommodate groups as large as 22 students, plus faculty and teaching assistants. Reservations darrel@uw.edu • Google Shear Shoshone Center

29 Transformational Bodywork by Karin Pine

Deep, profound & effective therapeutic massage. Karin Pine, formerly of Tecopa Hot Springs Massage, now offers her acclaimed bodywork in Shoshone Village. Clients report lasting results from even one session, for issues like whiplash, frozen shoulder, and sciatica. Her transformative myofascial therapy frees connective tissue restrictions, restoring comfortable movement. Read her five-star reviews under Tecopa Hot Springs Massage, then book your session by texting (760) 686-5373 • Info & email: www.KarinPine.com

30 Pupfish Habitat, Vole Preserve & Birding Trails

Stroll through our beautiful restoration habitat for the endangered Shoshone Pupfish and Amargosa Vole, located behind the RV park. Or amble through the Shoshone Wetlands on one of our popular birding trails – the Red Loop, Blue Loop, or Aqua Connector. For incredible vistas over ancient Lake Tecopa, follow the White Trail along the bluffs from Dublin Gulch to the school. Trail map located in front of the Crowbar.

31 Shoshone RV Park

Shoshone RV Park is a Good Sam park located at the north end of the Village next to the natural warm spring swimming pool. There are 25 full hook-up sites and many campsites under the open sky or sheltered by trees. The facilities include a laundromat, restrooms, showers, library, community room, fire pit and a state-of-the-art system that provides pure filtered spring water. We offer free Wi-Fi to all our RV park and campground guests. Explore the nearby trails and experience the wild beauty of our area. (760) 852-4569 • www.shoshonevillage.com

Death Valley Junction

32 Amargosa Opera House & Hotel

This is the home of Marta Becket's Amargosa Opera House and Hotel. For more than 40 years, Marta Becket lived and shared her art and dreams with those fortunate enough to find this wonderful and magical place. Located a few miles west of the California-Nevada border, near Death Valley National Park, no journey to this part of the world would be complete without a visit to this unique and inspiring destination. CA-190 & CA-127 • (760) 852-4441 • www.amargosaoperahouse.org

33 Death Valley Junction Campground

Conveniently located just outside of Death Valley National Park at the junction of CA-190 and CA-127, this Timbisha-owned campground is the perfect base camp for all your East Death Valley adventures! 20 pull-through sites for RVs or tent camping, each with a picnic table and fire ring. This is a dry camping spot, conveniently located near the state line and Death Valley Scenic Byway. Firewood for sale. Debit/Credit card only. Open 24 hours • CA-190 at CA-127 • (760) 872-3614

34 DVJ Fine Cannabis

California quality cannabis – without taxes! DVJ Fine Cannabis is a premium Native-Grown cannabis dispensary featuring a variety of strains and assorted cannabis products, located in the beautiful California desert. Our goal is to educate users on the wonderful benefits the cannabis plant has to offer in a safe, clean, and welcoming environment. Our care, attention and high-tech facility produces top quality lab-tested cannabis at a price everyone can afford. Visit us at the entrance of Death Valley National Park and experience the power of desert-grown Native cannabis! Open daily, 7am - 8pm • CA-190, MM 140.5 • (760) 305-9168 • www.dvjfinecannabis.com

Death Valley National Park

35 The Inn at Death Valley

Stroll among lush date palms, float the day away in our spring-fed pool, or disappear into the exhilarating landscape of one of America's largest national parks, and still return in time for a memorable dinner – and a sunset you'll never forget. Only here will you find a one-of-a-kind resort, within a beautiful desert setting. Enjoy what a recent $200 million renovation can do with AAA Four Diamond lodging, dining, spring-fed pool and scenery at the stunning Oasis at Death Valley. CA-190 • (800) 236-7916 • www.oasisatdeathvalley.com

36 Tümpisa Shoshoni Tribal Office

The Timbisha have lived in the Death Valley region since time immemorial, the land providing them with all of their needs. Today they are preserving the Timbisha language, basket making, ancient mythology, oral history and cultural traditions through the Tipuppuh Project (Homeland Project). Visitors can stop by to say hello and learn about Timbisha history, culture and crafts. Have a group? Schedule a presentation about the Timbisha Shoshone Tribe by contacting Mandi Campbell at (760) 258-7858 • thpo@timbisha.com

37 The Ranch at Death Valley

This former working ranch has been transformed into the family-friendly heartbeat of The Oasis at Death Valley. Offering a classic mid-century feel, guest rooms are adjacent to the Furnace Creek Golf Course on sprawling lawns with easy access to the ever-refreshing 87-degree spring-fed pool, sports courts and children's playground. Many rooms, including 80 brand new cottages, open onto patios, while others have balconies overlooking the grounds. The Ranch offers horseback rides, Jeep rentals to explore the park, and the lowest elevation 18-hole golf course in North America! CA-190 • (800) 236-7916 • www.oasisatdeathvalley.com

38 Furnace Creek Visitor Center

A great place to start your trip to Death Valley National Park! Buy your park pass, consult with a park ranger to plan your visit, or attend a ranger program (typically offered mid-Nov through March). Enjoy the museum's interactive exhibits and film about the park's natural and cultural history, and don't forget to check out the educational bookstore, operated by the nonprofit Death Valley Natural History Association. Open year-round, 8am - 5pm • CA-190, 30 miles west of Death Valley Junction • (760) 786-3200 • -DVNP trip planner app • www.nps.gov/deva

39 Stovepipe Wells Village

Come journey beyond the ordinary while visiting Death Valley National Park! Nestled in an authentically western, rustic yet cozy setting, our village has welcomed vacationers since 1926. Rest and relax at our newly renovated hotel, indulge at our delightful restaurant and western saloon, or unwind at our RV park and campground. After exploring Zabriskie Point, the sand dunes, and canyons, Stovepipe Wells Village offers an inviting retreat with friendly, knowledgeable staff, mouthwatering cuisine, and refreshing cold beverages. 51880 Highway 190 • (833) 778-9290 • www.stovepipedeathvalley.com

Amargosa Conservancy

The Amargosa Conservancy is a non-profit organization working toward a sustainable future for the Amargosa River and Basin through science, stewardship, and advocacy. Our work is deeply rooted in collaborative efforts with scientists, land managers, community members, students, conservation corps and other dedicated stewards of the Basin. info@amargosaconservancy.org • www.amargosaconservancy.org

SOUTHERN INYO FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT

We provide property owners, residents and travelers with vital fire protection services and emergency medical response 24/7. Our 1,250 square mile territory includes both the Amargosa Basin, as well as the isolated eastern Mojave Desert. Our experienced team of volunteer firefighters and emergency medical technicians stands ready. GPS units cannot be depended upon for accuracy in this extreme environment. Travel safely. Always carry sufficient water. Look for our fire trucks. In an emergency, always dial 911! (760) 852-4130. Office in Tecopa.

INYO COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

Serving Southeast Inyo County, we are stationed in the Old Adobe building in Shoshone Village. Our staff of professionals is dedicated to serving all citizens and visitors of Inyo Co. with quality law enforcement. (760) 852-4313 • In an emergency always dial 911. Office in Shoshone.

Southeast Inyo County

Arts + Culture Trail

Presented by the Shoshone Museum Association
Made possible by a grant from Inyo County

Cover Artwork by regional artist Merilee Mitchell

Arts & Culture TRAIL

Charleston View

China Ranch

Tecopa Area

Shoshone Village

Death Valley Junction

Death Valley National Park